REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

BOARD OF MISSIONS

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:---We, your Board of Missions, beg leave to report as follows:

On representation of our Presiding Elders we find that our Mission charges have done reasonably well during the year.

In the judgment of your board it is highly important and worth while for us to seek to cultivate a closer relation of sympathy and helpfulness between the strong charges and the Mission charges in our cities, so that your board may have a larger amount with which to develop the rural sections of our Conference.

The Little Rock Conference Epworth Leagues are to turn over to us a fund of $750 to be administered under the rules of our board to support a Home Missionary in some unoccupied territory in our Conference which shall be elected by our Conference Missionary Secretary, the said Missionary to be appointed by the Bishop.

The board had before it a full report from Dr. W W Pinson, Secretary of the General Board of Missions, which was read and carefully considered.

Dr. Ed F Cook, Assistant Secretary of the General Board, was present and elaborated the policy and methods of the General Board. It is the purpose of your board to come into the closest relation to the general board, and to fall in line with its policies.

We are overwhelmingly impressed with the greatness of the opportunity as well as the greatness of the problems of Missions.

We most earnestly urge a vigorous campaign in the interest of Missionary intelligence. Let our charges be flooded with Missionary Literature. The every member canvass will afford a fine medium for enlightening our people on Missions as well as to promote systematic giving to Missions. Let our pastors diligently circulate the Missionary Voice.

We urge the adoption of the slogan, 50 cents per member for Missions the coming year.

Your board will send representatives to the Missionary Leaders' Conference and the mid winter institute to be held at our Methodist Training School in Nashville, Tenn.

We recommend the appointment of Forney Hutchinson as Conference Missionary Secretary.

Our Treasurer, Mr. R M Mann's books were audited and found correct and neatly kept.

A motion was adopted by your board that the Presiding Elders do not share in the appropriations made to the Missionary charges.

On motion it was declared that the policy of your board shall be to make appropriations definitely to the several Missions of the Conference and that the Missionaries be paid at the close of each month through the Presiding Elder, and that the Missionaries make quarterly reports on blanks furnished them by the Board.

The total amount collected and in our hands for distribution is $4,517.00 which has been appropriated as follows:

Report No. 1

BOARD OF EDUCATION

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Board of Education, respectfully submit the following report:

From the Secretary of the General Board we have the communication revealing satisfactory progress and encouraging prospects in which we feel gratification, as we are partakers of the general work and we approve the plans of the General Board.

HENDRIX COLLEGE

We are glad to receive from the President of this Institution, Rev. A C Millar, information that the College enjoys increased patronage; indeed the largest in its history, and that the work of this institution seems to be in the most satisfactory condition and we rejoice in the President's expression of satisfaction of the teaching force and student body.

We recommend 1st that P D English, Rev J H Riffin, L B Leigh and A C Curtis be elected to succeed themselves as trustees of this institution. Second, that Rev James Thomas be reappointed by the Bishop as Commissioner of Education. Third, that we request the Bishop to appoint Rev A C Millar, President of Hendrix College and C J Greene, Professor. Fourth, that we recommend the assessment of $1,500 to said institution.

GALLOWAY COLLEGE

We have a very full and gratifying report from the President of Galloway College, stating the fact that there is a full attendance, a satisfactory teaching force and a splendid body of students, and convincing us that the Church must rally immediately to this institution of learning that it may be prepared to do the most thorough work in the education of our daughters. We recommend an assessment of $1,000 to assist them in this splendid work and assure them of our hearty sympathy.

HENDERSON-BROWN COLLEGE

We have report of president of Henderson-Brown College, making a most gratifying statement in regard to its condition, its work and prospects, at the same time not without great needs. We are glad to note that it has a full attendance and strong teaching force.

We recommend first that it be allowed to continue a financial agent in the field as during the past year and the Bishop is requested to appoint such agent.

We recommend that Hon. T M Mehaffey, Rev A O Evans, W E Barkman and Hon J H Hinemon be elected as trustees to succeed themselves, and that Capt R W Huie, Sr, be elected to take the place of Hon H L Rammel, resigned.

40 JOURNAL OF THE LITTLE ROCK ANNUAL CONFERENCE

We recommend an assessment of $1,500 for Henderson-Brown College.

We further recommend that the name of Henderson College be officially changed to Henderson-Brown College and that the charter be so amended as to conform with the laws of the Church and State.

We commend Dr Geo H Crowell and the excellent work which he is doing for this College, and recommend that the Bishop appoint him to continue as its President.

CLARY TRAINING SCHOOL

The report of this Training School presented by the Principal, A M McCain, reveals the fact that we have an excellent institution here if encouraged and strengthened by the members of this Conference, and we take pleasure in endorsing this school to our people. We further recommend that owing to the present indebtedness of $3,000 upon this institution, which debt is secured by a mortgage, and owing to the fact that the building has been destroyed more than once and each time being rebuilt by the citizenship of Fordyce and they are feeling an imperative need of assistance from the outside, the appointment of some one by the local board to raise this amount of indebtedness.

The board further recommends that W C Watson be elected Conference Secretary of Education. Second, that W C Watson and R W Huie, Jr be elected delegates to the educational meeting to be held in Nashville, Tenn., at an early day.

We also recommend that the property of the Mena-Hendrix Academy located at Mena, Arkansas, be given into the custody of the local Church Board to hold and to rent until such time that we may see proper to otherwise dispose of it. We further recommend that an assessment of $50.00 be made for the Vanderbilt Theological Institute.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:--We, your Board of Church Extension, respectfully submit this our report:

The report of the Parent Board shows some very interesting facts. During the 29 years of its history, aid had been given 8,062 church buildings, almost one-half of the total number owned by the Church. This means that Church Extension has to its credit more than 5 1-3 churches for every week of the 29 years of its existence. The total amount thus invested is $3,043,065.11, or an average of $378 to each church aided.

44 JOURNAL OF THE LITTLE ROCK ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Within our own Conference there are 438 church buildings and of this number 227 have Church Extension money in them; and our homeless congregations number 76.

It is the purpose of your Conference Board to adhere closely to the policy suggested by the General Board. Hence the board regards it as unwise to assist by donations in building houses to cost more than $1,000 and it will not do so in the future except in cases where it may judge the necessities of the applicants imperative.

It is further the policy of this board that no donations shall be made to any church upon which there is a lien or mortgage, except upon condition that such aid will remove the lien or mortgage and deliver the property into the hands of regularly appointed trustees.

Furthermore no application for aid will be considered by the board in the future unless drawn up in correct form as required by the law of the Church.

Hereafter, one fifth of the amount to be distributed by this board will be available for donations to parsonages within the bounds of our Conference, provided such assistance seems necessary.

The amount collected for Church Extension in the Little Rock Conference for 1911 is $3,982, of which amount $3,914 was received from the Conference Treasurer; $12 from W H Hansford, for Malvern Circuit; $12 from M K Irwin for Mena Station; $40 from J A Henderson for Dermott and Portland; $4 from W C Hilliard for Sweethome Circuit. The collection for 1910 amounted to $3,538, showing an increase of $444 for 1911.

The amount to be used by the Conference Board is $1,991, which has been distributed as follows, to-wit:

Hamburg Station.....	$ 350
Paraloma	225
Hawley Memorial	275
Traskwood	150
De Luce	150
Schaal	125
New Edinburg	150
Monticello	125
Midway	105
Harrell	100
Hughes Chapel.....	75
L'Eau Frais	50
Ebenezer.....	100
Contingent fund.....	5
Total.....	$1,985
Balance on hand	6

The assessment for the coming year is $5,963, which has been distributed as follows:

Arkadelphia District.....	$850
Camden District	900
Little Rock District	975
Monticello District	776
Prescott District.....	814
Pine Bluff District.....	825
Texarkana District	823

We urge our pastors to send for books and leaflets distributed by the Parent Board that they may present intelligently the work of Church Extension to their people.

EPWORTH LEAGUE REPORT

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Epworth League Board respectfully submits the following report:

There are 75 Leagues and 2,750 League members in the Little Rock Conference.

The Leagues have raised this year $1,107 for Missions. For other objects $1,573, a total for all purposes of $2,680.

The Epworth League Conference was held at Crossett last June. It was a conference of great enthusiasm. $750 was pledged for Home Mission work.

We are gratified to know that the Epworth Era is paying all expenses, including the salary of editors and we heartily recommend this paper to all Epworth Leaguers.

We recommend the appointment of Rev H F Buhler to co-operate with the General Board in collecting the 10 cents assessment.

We recommend that Dr A C Millar, Rev J M Workman and T B Warwick be appointed by this Conference as Commissioners to confer with Commissioners from the Arkansas and White River Conferences with a view to the locating and securing of joint assembly grounds for the Epworth Leagues of Arkansas.

Respectfully submitted,

J B Sims, Secretary

PUBLISHING INTERESTS

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

We, your Committee on Publishing Interests, beg leave to report as follows:

We have had under consideration the subject committed to us and find that the exhibit of the Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn., and Dallas, Texas, very satisfactory and most gratifying. To the un-sophisticated the business seems to be on an entirely safe financial basis and in a highly flourishing condition.

Your committee are glad to learn of the increased circulation of the Methodist Review; and that it is not only financially self-sustaining, but is bringing in some revenue to the house. Your committee regard the quality of the Review as entirely satisfactory and on a par with the best of its kind.

We are also rejoiced to learn that our most excellent general organ, The Christian Advocate, and our Epworth Era are now paying their own way. The committee endorse them as periodicals of very great excellence.

Our Sunday School literature issuing from the Publishing House, your committee thinks, is first-class.

Your committee had under consideration also our own Conference organ, The Western Methodist. Having received no communication of any kind from the staff of this publication, your committee has but little material for its report. Your committee are frank to say that they regard the paper as comparing favorably with our other church papers, and with those of other denominations.

Your committee offers for adoption by the Conference the following resolution:

46 JOURNAL OF THE LITTLE ROCK ANNUAL CONFERENCE

First, that we, the members of the Little Rock Conference, will continue, if not increase, our activity in circulating the books and periodicals issuing from our Publishing House, especially the Christian Advocate.

Second, that it is the sense of this Conference that preachers and people can order this literature advantageously from the house of Anderson & Miller at Little Rock, Arkansas.

Third, that we will strive to put our Conference organ into the homes of all our people.

Fourth, that we have elected Prof. C J Greene and Rev. J L Cannon to represent the Little Rock Conference on the Editorial Committee for the Western Methodist for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Committee on District Conference Journals, beg leave to make the following report:

The Records were all before us. We have carefully inspected them, one by one. In the main they are all very well kept, and fully meet the requirements for which such records are made. In the judgment of your committee there are some minor, and more or less, unimportant defects in all of them. And that our examination of them may result in increased painstaking care upon the part of the secretaries of our District Conference, in bringing these records to the highest possible degree of perfection, we offer some criticisms as well as commendations of them.

The Arkadelphia District Record is above criticism as to the matter of its pages. The paragraphing, marginal index are correct and full. In most of the journals of this kind the number of the sessions forms the running headline at the top of the pages, but the secretary, in this instance, uses instead, "1911." While these numerals may, as a rule, be satisfactory in facilitating searching of the records, it is the opinion of your committee that the number of that session of the Conference would have been better. The secretary also follows the rule of some of the Annual Conference secretaries of recording all reports, resolutions etc., as an appendix. While no searcher of the records would likely be misled by this arrangement of the proceedings of the Conference, at the same time, it is the opinion of your committee that it is a better and more satisfactory way to record the proceedings of a District Conference in the order in which these were had.

The Record of the Little Rock District Conference is very well kept. About the only defect, to which we think well to call attention is that the secretary persists, from the second to the last session of the conference, in declaring that the minutes were "adopted" instead of saying properly that they were "approved."

The Journal of the Prescott District Conference is, in most respects, a model. The record is terse but full enough, is well indexed, and every page shows the lack of haste, which we believe accounts for most of the defects of such records. The evidence is plain that the work was done by a painstaking and competent secretary.

Pine Bluff District Journal is well kept. The handwriting is neat and legible and the arrangement is proper. We have but one criticism, namely, the marginal index is not full enough. Indeed, it is too imperfect to be of much assistance to a searcher of the record.

Monticello District is, in our judgment, guilty of many errors and defects. In the first place the enterprising and ingenious secretary made his record with a typewriter. He cut out a sufficient number of leaves from the record book and pasted to the stubs his typewritten proceedings of the District Conference. There is no doubt that he considered his work an improvement on that of his predecessors, and he is to be commended for his efforts in that direction, but we fear that his labor is in vain, and that, as a record, his work will soon perish. We would prefer the old and usual method of writing the proceedings of our District Conferences on the proper pages of the record book.

Our secretary made no marginal index to his Journal; moreover we are accusing him of making too free use of abbreviations. As for instance he, at the head of each page wrote "Mont. Dist. Conf." In his account of the passage of character "the following preachers' characters were passed, and licenses were renewed as shown after each name: R. Spann, L. E., c. p., C. A. Fuller, L. P., c. p., and L. r." He also in speaking, as we surmise, of the Sunday School Institute, crowds the whole matter into "Dist. S. S. Inst."

He makes no intimation of the minutes of the session ever having been read. And so on.

The Texarkana District Journal, with these exceptions, is a very neat and correct one. It has no headlines. The number of the session is not mentioned. It is innocent of a marginal index. Clerical members of the Conference are referred to as "brother" or "Rev." instead of using first name or initials.

We commend the Camden District record as well kept and correct.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Your Committee on the Methodist Orphanage respectfully report to you that we are very much gratified with the great work of the Board of Trustees and of our Methodist people in Arkansas. And we herewith submit to you the following communication from the Methodist Orphanage Board of Trustees:

Dear Brethren:

The Trustees of the Methodist Orphanage submit their annual reports as follows:

The past year has been one of varied sunshine and shadow for the Orphanage. We have had considerable serious sickness and one death—that of Little Roy Sutton who came to us from Dardanelle. We had 14 cases of measles at one time, some of which were complicated pneumonia. At present the children are all well except three boys with chills who recently came into the home from Augusta.

We received nine children during the year and placed nine in good homes, leaving 29 with us which is of course, the same number we had at the close of last year.

We rejected 55 applications for children. In most of these applications, it was evident that the applicants were seeking servants and we do not place children in families to be servants. We refused admission to the home of three children whose father is alive; three whose mother is alive and making $30.00 per month in a laundry; two who are over age; one whose parents are both living, and five of one family where the father had been killed and the mother was in jail accused of being accessory to the killing of the father. In all of these cases our sympathies were very much moved but they did not, in our judgment, come within the scope or object of our work.

We have during the existence of the institution, placed 144 children in homes to be adopted as members of the families.

Since our last annual report, Brother Thornburg has collected $4,701.88 toward the completion of the new building and furnishing the same, of which amount $675.00 was for furnishings. The total amount invested in the new home is $31,015.22, of which $600.00 came from the sale of the old home. $21,515.22 was raised by Brother Thornburg and $3,500.00 remains unpaid as part of the purchase price of the grounds. We are assured that the value of the property far exceeds the amount invested. Those who have seen the new home for the first time are astonished at the beauty of the location and the magnitude of the building. The internal management has been very satisfactory. It is a well regulated home and a delightfully happy family. We know that God's blessing has been and will continue to be on this work.

Respectfully submitted,

The Board of Trustees,

By G H Kimball, Secretary

Your committee will say furthermore, with the information we have before us, that we do heartily endorse the present management of our Orphanage, and believe it is about the best that could be had for our orphan children.

Therefore, we recommend first that the Little Rock Annual Conference make an assessment of $2,000 for the support and maintainance of our Orphanage for the ensuing year. Second that every pastor in our Conference set apart, in congregation, an orphanage day, and take a special collection at the service for the Methodist Orphanage on that day.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE

We, your Committee on Temperance submit the following report:

We note with pleasure the degree of progress that has attended the cause of prohibition in the various parts of the country in the past year. We reaffirm our antagonism to the liquor traffic and stand uncompromisingly for state-wide prohibition, and pledge our support to the Anti-Saloon League in its efforts to get state-wide prohibition by statutory enactment and by the initiation of a State wide prohibition bill.

We recommend that the following persons be appointed by the Little Rock Conference as its representatives on the State Anti-Saloon League Board, viz: Rev. Frank Barnett, Hon Geo Thornburgh, Rev. W. C. Davidson, Rev. W. C. Watson, J. O. A. Bush, J. L. De Loney and Rev B. A. Few.

We recommend that J. M. Workman and P. C. Fletcher be appointed delegates from this Conference to the American Anti-Saloon League Convention, which meets in Washington, D. C. December 11 to 13, 1911.

We recommend the reappointment of Rev. Frank Barnett as Superintendent of the Arkansas Anti Saloon League.

Frank Barnett, Chairman.

E. J. Camak, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT

Your committee on the Laymen's Missionary Movement respectfully submit the following report:

We heartily endorse the efforts of the Secretary of the Board of Missions and the Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement in their campaign for the dissemination of useful information in all lines of missionary activity, and we cheerfully recommend the suggestions set forth in the pamphlet issued under their direction and entitled "A Financial Method for Methodists".

We believe that it was the providence of God that called forth the Laymen's Missionary Movement in this, the world's greatest missionary crisis and that its purpose is to aid the church in every needful way for the evangelization of the world; that if properly understood and put in operation it will become a most useful factor in arousing the men of the church to a realization of the duties of Christian stewardship and will strengthen and quicken the various activities of Christian life.

We believe that the business of the church should be performed by the business men of the church; that it is not reason that the minister should leave the word of God and serve tables, but that they might have opportunity to give themselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word; therefore, we recommend that in every charge the board of stewards take upon themselves the responsibility of raising the finances of the church.

Our hearts go out in sympathy to the superannuate preachers, their widows and orphans, and we heartily approve any methods adopted by this Conference to add to their comfort in the declining years and we confidently expect to soon see the day when a comfortable home will be provided by the Little Rock Conference for the use of every superannuate preacher within its bounds.

We have great faith in the importance of Christian education, believing that our church schools and colleges are furnishing the country with its best type of manhood and womanhood and we rejoice in the hearty co-operation of our people in their support of these institutions.

We respectfully urge upon our presiding elders and pastors the importance of assisting the district lay leaders, the church leaders and the missionary committees in the systematic and intelligent working out of the plans and purpose of the Laymen's Missionary Movement; in the distribution of literature; the dissemination of useful knowledge and the arousing of the church to the magnitude of its duties, opportunities and responsibilities in the impending conquest of the world for Christ.

We believe that it is impossible for a man to be a happy, growing Christian in its fullest sense who neglects such means of grace as the daily reading of the Scriptures, family worship and some personal effort to win others to Christ. We therefore recommend that our laymen be encouraged to co-operate with their pastors in revival work and conducting religious services when needed and that they assist in having some form of worship in every church every Sunday.

We recommend that the Conference Lay Leader and the District Lay Leaders be members, ex-officio, of the district conference.

We earnestly request the Presiding Elders to counsel with the Conference Lay Leader and, if convenient, arrange the time of holding the district conferences on such dates as he may be able to attend; and especially that a day of each district conference be set apart to the work of the Laymen's Missionary Movement under the direction of the Conference Lay Leader and the District Lay Leader.

We recommend that the names and postoffice addresses of the Conference Lay Leader, the District Lay Leaders and the Church Lay Leaders be printed in the Minutes of this conference.

We recommend J. O. A. Bush for Conference Lay Leader and J. H. Waters as Vice Conference Leader.

Respectfully submitted,

BIBLE BOARD

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:---We, your Bible Board, respectfully submit our report.

The board as now constituted consists of the following members: J A Parker, Chairman; H E Wheeler, Secretary-Treasurer; R A McClintock, R H M Mills, W W Mills, P S Herron, J M Cannon, S K Burnett, A M Robertson, J J Craig and W L Ellis.

The circulation of God's Word is by far the most important of all our evangelizing agencies, and to the American Bible Society we owe an immense debt of gratitude. Last year alone it issued some 3,231,722 volumes of the Scriptures in 112 languages and dialects. It is wise in its administration and liberal in its donations to needy districts. For this agency, comprising the four states Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas it maintains a depository at Dallas, Texas, where 30,000 volumes of the Scriptures are in stock. Last year nearly this many Bibles were distributed by the agency in 28 languages, and 43 colporteurs gave their time wholly to the work. One of these, Rev. Wm Sproule, a Southern Methodist, is working with much success in the bounds of our own Conference.

The four states comprising this agency contributed to the American Bible Society last year $5,477.90, but this was considerably less than one-half of the appropriation—$14,400.00—made by the Society for this agency. Nothing reveals the extremity of our need more than the fact that nearly one-half the homes visited by the colporteurs were without a copy of the Bible.

We wish to endorse heartily the work done by Mr. Morgan in this territory. We recommend that all our pastors celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the King James Version, and call special attention to the commemoration of this event in Dallas, Texas, in October last, on which occasion one of our Bishops presided, and Governor Woodrow Wilson delivered a notable address.

A year ago the Little Rock Conference paid $597 to the American Bible Society. We regret that no assessment was made on the Conference this year, and recommend that $500 be assessed for this work the coming year to be prorated with the other claims

We commend most heartily the Pocket Testament League of America. This movement having no other object than to secure the daily reading of God's Word, and encourage the reader to carry with him everywhere a New Testament or Bible, is growing rapidly and has already been honored of God. It issues a small manual, which with other supplies and especially printed New Testaments of the League, can be obtained from the Sunday School Times Publishing Co., Philadelphia Pa. Let it be introduced in our Sunday Schools and the work followed up by a wide awake Secretary.

CONFERENCE TRUSTEES' REPORT

To the Bishop and Members of the Little Rock Annual Conference:

Dear Father and Brethren:-- We, the Board of Trustees of the M E Church; South, and Custodian of the Endowment Fund for the Superannuates, respectfully submit the following for your consideration:

Comparing the results of the last fiscal year with those of preceding years, we have cause for gratitude and at least a degree of satisfaction, since the cash receipts for the past year are larger than any in the history of the fund. There has been gradual growth in our current collections for several years, and yet the past year was thirty per cent in advance of the preceding year.

The first of April our cash assets amounted to $183,293.57; total assets, $286,532.24. Disbursement of interest the foregoing year, $5,589. The amount to be disbursed the current year will be more than $6,500. Our investments are satisfactory. We loan our funds at from 6 to 10 per cent per annum, as the rate varies in the different states; secured by first mortgage on improved real estate and never more than 40 per cent of the value of the property. We have never lost a dollar on a loan.

We have availed ourselves of every opportunity possible for taking subscriptions from congregations and have added considerably to our list of contributors during the year.

The board is most solicitous for both the spirit and fact of co-operation within all of our Conferences. In a few of our Conferences the aim and method of procedure do not seem to be sufficiently definite to attain success. While we are free to concede the matter of the plan of procedure to each Conference, we cannot be too urgent in our request that every Conference be active in the employment of some well defined method in building up the fund. As is well known, all save a few of our Conferences have laid an assessment for the fund, and we are free to say that so far, this has proved to be much more effective than any other method heretofore employed.

If any should object to making an assessment, saying that we do not want a new collection, we would reply that this is not a new collection, but has been in existence since 1902. It is not more binding after making an assessment than it was before. It is simply a change of method by which the collection should be taken. Adopt your own plan, but please take a collection yearly for this most worthy cause.

We respectfully request all of our preachers to inform us of any persons from whom special donations, bequests or annuities might be secured for the fund.

Thanking you for co-operation in the past, soliciting your help for the future and praying the Divine blessing upon your work and Conference session, we remain,

Your obedient servants,

J R Stewart, Secretary

Memoirs

DR. H. R. WITHERS

Harlston Reed Withers was born in Washington county, Florida, Jan. 22nd, 1835. The family came to Arkansas in 1848, settling near Longview on the Saline river, where his father, John Withers, was a pioneer Methodist and local preacher.

Harlston was brought into the church in childhood. He was given license to preach December 15th, 1850, not yet sixteen years of age, and was admitted on trial in the Arkansas Conference, which then included the whole state, in 1851. This ante-dates in time of admission on trial any other preacher in the Conference, now living. He was sent to White Oak circuit lying on both sides of the Saline from Mt. Elba to Pratt's Ferry. He had already supplied the work some four months, and a great revival was in progress, due to the fervent and eloquent preaching of the beardless boy. The revival continued all the next year. A number of boys were converted, several of whom became itinerant preachers and eminently useful men.

He was discontinued in 1852 and attended school a year and was admitted a second time in 1853 with that remarkable class of which two, Bros. Caldwell and Scott, still survive. In 1853 he was sent to Pine Bluff circuit with L. A. Marshall, but was changed to Plum Bayou. He told the writer that he was paid $15.00 the first year on White Oak, $60.00 the second year and $30.00 on Plum Bayou. In 1854 he was sent to Hamburg, in 1855 he was sent to Pine Bluff and in 1856 to Little Rock station, being twenty-one years of age. In 1857 he was stationed at Pine Bluff, in 1858 at Princeton and in 1859 to Lake Village.

In 1860 he located. This was a mistake. The mistake was not wholly his. If those who were influential in the Conference and in the connection had been wise and true it might have been different. Withers was a born orator. He used to remind me of Bishop Marvin, in stature, in pose, in voice, in mastery of English and in deep spiritual fervor combined with lofty sweep of imagination. The people were charmed with his preaching; the more cultured were especially captivated with preaching that it was worth while to hear. He was a prodigy. Without scholarship he was more than peer of those who came from the colleges, and he was in easy touch with the people of every condition of life. Doubtless he had faults. His success provoked envy. He was sensitive and conscious of his superior abilities. He ought to have been managed, guided, controlled, kept in the harness and in the field to the great advantage of the Church. When a man drops out he can never regain his place. He went to the army, he studied and practiced law, became circuit judge, went into politics, rubbed up against the dirty world. He had a rough and stormy experience. Ten years were lost. He was a local preacher all the while and did some great preaching and was ever true as steel to Methodism; but these were ten years lost out of his prime. God only knows how much it all meant.

In 1870 he was re-admitted by the Arkansas Conference and stationed at Ozark. In 1871 P. E. on the Van Buren district, in 1872 at Clarksville, 1873-4 supernumerary at Clarksville, 1876 at Roseville, supernumerary again at Altus in 1877. In 1879 he was superannuated.

In 1881 he became effective and was transferred to Little Rock Conference and stationed at Arkansas City, in 1882 at Hope, which he served two years which are remembered as red letter years in the history of that charge. In 1884 he was sent to Hot Springs, serving four years; in Hamburg in 1888 for two years, in 1890 Liberty. In 1891 he was supernumerary and in 1892 was placed permanently on the superannuated list.

Deafness had gradually fastened itself upon him. Before 1870 his hearing became very defective and every year the trouble increased until he was so much disqualified for pastoral work or for presiding in Conferences that he was granted either supernumerary or superannuated relation for many years. By the use of ear trumpets and other artificial helps, he managed to get along while at Hope and Hot Springs, but absolute deafness came at last with permanent superannuation, and with that sad isolation and sense of helplessness that crush the spirits of the deaf and aged.

He had two daughters. Both married Methodist preachers, the one H. W. Brooks of the Memphis Conference, the other R. R. Moore of the Little Rock Conference. During his helpless age he made his home mainly with one or the other and died at the home of H. W. Brooks, Paris, Tenn., June 11th, 1911.

In 1870 Arkansas was wholly within the clutches of the whiskey devil. The politicians and office holders, large and small, were nearly all under its control. The situation was alarming. When Dr. Withers became non-effective in 1873, without pastoral charge, he took up the fight with the saloon. He lectured throughout the state, aroused sentiment, edited a temperance periodical, called others into the field, and organized the forces for perpetual war. His thrilling eloquence drew crowds to hear him, the drunken politicians were compelled to take notice. He demanded the attention of legislators and all men in office. His clarion call resounded through all our borders and through his influence there was the beginning of an anti-whiskey legislation that has gone on and is going on to the complete redemption of the State from the saloon curse. He largely initiated the fight. Many wished him success but few saw any ground for hope. He went into it, hope or no hope, sink or swim, live or die. He had a hard fight, received many blows, was scarred and maimed. His deafness becoming such that he could not hear his own voice, he passed the banner into other hands. The fight goes on without him, and must go on to the finish. The Church must overthrow the saloon, or the saloon will overthrow the Church. He may be forgotten but the work abides. He was full of joy and hope at the end. He is asleep in Jesus.

REV. BARNETT WRIGHT

During nearly four years as his Presiding Elder, I knew Rev. Barnett Wright. He was pre-eminently a student preacher. His reading was extensive and intensive. He read much and read for a purpose. His reading contributed to his sermonizing. His mind was keen, analytic, severely logical, and yet he had a vivid, almost florid imagination. He studied great subjects, mastered them, and preached great sermons. He freely used what he gathered from reading, but the form and the expression were his own. I have heard some of the greatest preachers of the age. Few could grip and hold me with the strength of thought as could Brother Wright. Although his subjects were profound and the treatment scholarly, he interested and charmed the unlearned as well as the learned. He had a keen sense of humor and was a master of sarcasm and invective, but used them sparingly. He was such a student that he might easily have found excuse for neglect of pastoral duty, but he avoided no duty whether pleasant or irksome. He was a fine judge of men, and although his bold pulpit utterances seemed at times calculated to offend, his tact enabled him to hold men even when they were wounded by his shafts. His indomitable energy caused him to push to completion every worthy enterprise, hence he would bring up his collections in spite of adverse conditions. He was in demand. Charges served clamored for his return, and he was much sought for special occasions. Being a bachelor for nearly three years of our official relation, he took me often to his own room where we would discuss great themes. I learned to love him, trust his judgment, and admire his many noble qualities. I found him true, noble, magnanimous, courageous, a high spirited Christian gentleman and loyal friend and brother.

The son of Hon. J. R. Wright, a leading planter of Hickman county, Ky., Rev. Barnett Wright was born near Fulton, Ky., September 14, 1871. Converted October 6, 1886. Joined the church October, 1888. Licensed to preach August 29, 1892. Graduated at Marvin College June, 1894. Admitted on trial to the Memphis Conference, November 16, 1894. Appointed to Tiptonville Circuit, 1894-5, to Bolivar Station 1895-6. Transferred to East Texas Conference and then to Louisiana Conference, 1897, and appointed to Vienna Circuit; Shreveport, 1898; one of the New Orleans churches in 1899. Spent 1900 on a farm in Kentucky on account of poor health. Served Farmerville Circuit, Louisiana, two years, and Lake Providence, 1903-4. Transferred to Little Rock Conference December, 1904, and stationed at Hawley Memorial, Pine Bluff, but was released from this charge and spent the most of the year in evangelistic work. Appointed to Des Arc, 1905; and to Lonoke 1906-7; England 1908-9; Lonoke 1910, where he died January 31, 1911, aged thirty-nine years. In 1909, June 23, he was married to Miss Gussie Robinson, of Farmerville, La. His married life, though brief, was very happy. He had found a noble, cultured, helpful itinerant preacher's wife. His health had been poor for years. Few, except his intimate friends, knew how he suffered. They were not surprised at his premature break-down and early death. As his work had practically all been done in one corner of the Conference, he was not intimately known by many of his brethren. Those who knew him had learned to estimate him at his true worth and predicted a great career. He had been a strong camp meeting preacher and in his early ministry his efforts were chiefly evangelistic. Before he was thirty years old five hundred persons had been converted under his ministry. He was a successful temperance speaker, and always worked for prohibition when opportunity was afforded. We needed him. We shall miss him. Our love and sympathy go out unstinted to his aged father and to his widowed bride.

ATCHLEY.—Cornelia J. Atchley, nee Anderson, wife of Rev. R. C. Atchley, one of our honored superannuates, took her flight from earth to glory at high noon on December 15, 1910, and Oh how sad we are. She was born January 11, 1842; married to Brother R. C. Atchley February 13, 1862; mother of ten children, four of whom awaited her coming at the beautiful gate. Six are left behind for awhile, but bless the Lord they are all on their way. She was a member of the church fifty-four years, and as one of her many pastors I cheerfully say that she was a member in every sense of the term. Her loyalty to the church, to her pastor, and to its membership was simply beautiful. The greatest work that she did, possibly, was in her own home, and I never expect to look upon a prettier sight this side of heaven than when I saw the husband and every child and even the grand children, follow her to the river and bid her good night, fully expecting to meet her in the morning. When she decided that she could not get well, her devoted husband asked her if she feared death, and she told him no, no, no, but I want all my children here, and the good Lord granted her request. Brethren, many poor souls have been cheered along the way by Sister Atchley, and a tired pastor has found a resting place under her roof, for it was the preacher's home. O, how we will miss her, but we would not, if we could call her back from her resting place in the city of God. When she was ready to pass over to her mansion above, she said, "Precious Savior, guide me; come show me the way," and in less than a minute she said, "Hallelujah!" Loved ones, your devotion was unexcelled, so cheer up and she will be watching and waiting for her faithful and devoted husband and dutiful children at the pearly gates, and O what a happy meeting that will be.

MRS. ALICE LESLIE RODGERS

Mrs. Alice Leslie Rodgers was born near Crocket's Bluff, Arkansas county, Arkansas, March 16, 1883. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S L. Leslie. She was married to J. T. Rogers, then a traveling salesman at De Witt, Ark., March 20, 1905. Lived for several years at Stuttgart, Ark. In the fall of 1907 moved to the parsonage at Roe, Ark., at which place she died in their little parsonage home, April 20, 1911. Was buried at DeWitt, Ark., the home of her girlhood and where her kindred sleep.

Sister Rodgers professed religion and united with the M. E. Church, South, in early life. She was a good Christian girl and became a strong Christian woman.

In the summer of 1907 her husband was licensed to preach and at the following Annual Conference was received on trial in the traveling connection into the Little Rock Conference. They were sent to the Roe and St. Charles charge where they were serving the full four years. Her birth place and early home is in the bounds of this charge

No preacher's wife was ever loved more devotedly and no preacher's wife ever served more beautifully than did she among the people of her childhood. She visited with her husband in the homes of the people and carried a ray of sunlight and good cheer wherever she went. Unknowingly, to herself, it seemed she wooed "with holy words, and tones of love, from misery's thorny track."

She was a great stay to her husband, not only in his pastoral work, but in home life, and here it was that her light shone brightest. I was their Presiding Elder for three years and it was a great pleasure to me as their pastor to visit them in their parsonage home. It was here "where spirits blend, where friend held fellowship with friend."

She was a good woman. I cherish her memory.

MARY S. GODBEY

Mary S. Godbey, daughter of William S. and Elizabeth Holloway, was born in St. Louis county, Mo., July 23, 1841. She was married to Rev. J. E. Godbey Nov. 2, 1865. After her marriage her experience was that of a Methodist preacher's wife in varied spheres of society and all kinds of service for forty-five years.

Sister Godbey was a devoted wife, and enjoyed the devotion of her husband. The mutual consideration in this union was ideal. As a home maker she was unsurpassed; and she gave herself assiduously for the welfare and happiness of her family, at the same time resting confidently in their love and care. Four children were born to her, one son and three daughters. All of them preceded her to the spirit world, and left her gazing up after them. So the last years were a quiet, sad, hopeful waiting. In social relations, Sister Godbey was discreet, never erring in judgment. She showed herself friendly and made for herself friends. She took her place everywhere with ease and grace. She loved and was loved. She had great afflictions which she bore in silence. As she approached death, she wrote out directions for the disposition of some of her personal property, and the order of her funeral.

As a Christian, she lived in the atmosphere of love and simple faith, and was ready at the call of the good Father. "She hath done what she could."

W. P. Whaley.

MRS. FANNIE JOHNSTON

M. Fannie (Power) Johnston, daughter of Frank and Sarah Power and sister of Dr. W. W. Power, was born August 23, 1850, in Madison county, Ga., and died at Murfreesboro, Ark., Feb. 2, 1911. With her family, she came to Buford, Ga., about 1878. She was married to Rev. Jessup L. Johnston June 1, 1881. They moved to Rock Creek, Ark., in Feb. 1887. She was the mother of three children: Charlie L., age four years, and Josie Bell, age one and a half years. Both died on the same day in 1887 at Rock Creek; and James Godden, age one year, who died at Magnolia in 1892.

She professed religion when eighteen years old and joined the Missionary Baptist Church, but later joined the Methodist Church with her husband, and lived a devoted, zealous, Christian life. In the fall of 1887 her husband joined the Little Rock Conference; and, for twenty-two years, by her encouragement, industry, economy and prayers, he was enabled to serve acceptably the ten charges assigned him in Southwest Arkansas, where she has a host of friends. It was her great delight to go with her husband from place to place and visit the people on his work.

She suffered for many years with asthma, and about six years ago went into consumption. She suffered so much that her husband requested to be put on the superannuate list in 1909 that he might the better care for her. She bore her sufferings with Christian fortitude. She had all the attention that medical skill and loving hands could give. She was perfectly conscious of approaching death; but, having the love of the Lord Jesus in her heart, she did not fear, but rejoiced that she would soon be free from her sufferings and at home with her Saviour. Her greatest earthly concern was for her husband whom she was leaving alone for awhile. She requested that no one grieve after her. She made all necessary plans for her dress, casket, and funeral services, even selecting the songs to be used, and the person to write this notice.

As she was entering death's door her husband said: "Fannie, I have gone as far as I can go with you now;" and she said: "Yes, I know that." This writer then said: "Fannie, the Lord will go with you;" and she said: "Yes, he is with me." Soon after this, without a shudder, she gently and quietly breathed her life out and fell asleep in Jesus. She was buried at Murfreesboro, Ark., Rev. E. F. Wilson conducting the services.
